

I am a financial supporter of K-LOVE and listen exclusively to this station only. It is one of the few totally uncommercial stations left on the airways. In addition being a totally christian station I don't have to worry about language or the crude and rude jokes and comments you hear on many stations these days. I urge you not to let the low power FM stations interfere with or take priority over K-LOVE's nation wide listenership. Thank you, Kris McDaniel